

SANDRONE

UNIQUE SELLING POINTS

- A family-owned estate with complete control of its vineyards, allowing for precise farming and careful site selection.
- Focused exclusively on three native Piedmontese varieties: Nebbiolo, Barbera and Dolcetto.
- Six distinct red wines, each with a clearly defined identity. There are no "second wines"; every label receives the same commitment to quality.
- Vineyards are selected for distinctive soils, altitude and exposure, including nearly three hectares in Valmaggiore, Roero, 20 km from the winery.
- Luciano Sandrone discovered and propagated a unique Nebbiolo clone, resulting in the iconic Barolo Vite Talin.
- Nearly 50 vintages of experience have shaped a style recognised for its elegance, precision, balance and capacity to age.
- Large formats and library vintages are available for many of the wines.

Barolo Le Vigne DOCG

The benchmark multi-vineyard Barolo.

- First produced in 1990.
- A blend of five top vineyards across five Barolo villages, with each vineyard vinified separately before blending.
- Represents the finest expression of each vintage rather than following a fixed vineyard recipe.
- This is not an entry-level Barolo; it is built from premier vineyard sites.
- Part of the Sibi et Paucis library-release programme, released after 10 years.
- Available in 750 ml, magnum, 3 L and 5 L formats.

Barolo Aleste DOCG

The original Sandrone Barolo.

- Produced from the historic Cannubi Boschis vineyard.
- First produced in 1978.
- Renamed ALESTE in 2013 in honour of Luciano's grandchildren, Alessia and Stefano.
- A single-vineyard expression that has never been blended into Le Vigne.
- Known for its depth, structure and darker-fruit profile.
- Part of the Sibi et Paucis library-release programme, released after 10 years.
- Available in 750 ml, magnum and 3 L formats.

Barolo Vite Talin DOCG

One of Italy's most fascinating wine stories.

- Produced from a single Nebbiolo vine discovered by Luciano in 1987.
- More than 20 years of research led to the propagation of a unique Nebbiolo clone.
- The first vintage was 2013.
- Extremely limited production of approximately 2,500 bottles.
- Aged for six years before release.
- Presented in an individual gift box.

SANDRONE

UNIQUE SELLING POINTS

- A family-owned estate with complete control of its vineyards, allowing for precise farming and careful site selection.
- Focused exclusively on three native Piedmontese varieties: Nebbiolo, Barbera and Dolcetto.
- Six distinct red wines, each with a clearly defined identity. There are no "second wines"; every label receives the same commitment to quality.
- Vineyards are selected for distinctive soils, altitude and exposure, including nearly three hectares in Valmaggiore, Roero, 20 km from the winery.
- Luciano Sandrone discovered and propagated a unique Nebbiolo clone, resulting in the iconic Barolo Vite Talin.
- Nearly 50 vintages of experience have shaped a style recognised for its elegance, precision, balance and capacity to age.
- Large formats and library vintages are available for many of the wines.

Valmaggiore Nebbiolo d'Alba DOC

A pure expression of Roero Nebbiolo.

- The first vintage was 1994.
- Produced from Sandrone's only vineyard in Roero.
- Made from 100% Nebbiolo grown on sandy soils, resulting in a more floral and elegant style than Barolo.
- Aged for 12 months in tonneaux, followed by nine months in bottle.
- Part of the Sibi et Paucis library-release programme.
- Available in 750 ml and magnum formats.

Barbera d'Alba DOC

A serious, age-worthy Barbera.

- Sourced from vineyards in Monforte and Novello.
- Each parcel is vinified separately before blending.
- Aged for 15 months in French oak tonneaux.
- Bright, vibrant fruit is balanced by structure and freshness.
- Available in 750 ml and magnum formats.

Dolcetto d'Alba DOC

Traditional Piedmont, elevated.

- Eleven high-altitude parcels are vinified separately.
- Fermented entirely in stainless steel to preserve freshness and purity.
- Bright, vibrant and approachable, while retaining Sandrone's hallmark precision.
- Demonstrates the estate's commitment to quality across every wine in the portfolio.

